

COMPETITION REPORT

11th April 2010

The Rockingham Offshore Fishing Club Held its 7th fishing competition for the season on April 11th with the weigh in held at the Rockingham Navy Club at Point Peron. Weather conditions were good and there was a good mixed bag of fish species at the weigh in.

There were 8 boats with 19 members and 2 visitors competing for the prizes.

Nigel Kitchen of Port Kennedy earned himself $50.00 (courtesy of Compleat Angler and Camping World Rockingham) for the most species with 6 being presented.

Roly Holden of Port Kennedy won $50.00 for the biggest Sand Whiting (courtesy of Rockingham Electric and Marine)

Scott Heap of Port Kennedy won $50.00 for the biggest herring (courtesy of BCF Rockingham)

Jason Ramshaw of Secret Harbour won $50.00 for the biggest Queen snapper (courtesy of Safety Bay Tackle)

Darren Cooper of Seville Grove won $50.00 for the biggest Leather Jacket (courtesy of KGT Freight Management)

Darrell Baldock of Seville Grove won $50.00 for the biggest Red Snapper (courtesy of Rockingham Offshore Fishing Club)

Clive Marwood of Parmelia won both the $50.00 and the $25.00 lucky square prize.

Other catches included some good sized King George Whiting, a very respectable Dhu fish and some good quality Southern Bluefin Tuna.

The clubs next gathering will be its May fishing competition combined with the clubs birthday celebrations on Sunday 2nd May. There will be more prizes and some great free giveaways at the weigh in for all members.

Report Nigel KITCHEN

Photo 1 - Rick Ashton of Safety Bay and Michael Rungay of Safety Bay with some nice Southern Bluefin Tuna

Photo 2 - Jason Ramshaw & Martin Wood of Secret Harbour and Scott Heap of Port Kennedy with a mix of Queen Snapper, Breaksea Cod, Red Snapper and Dhu fish.