

COMPETITION REPORT

4th July 2010

The Rockingham Offshore Fishing Club held its July fishing competition on Sunday 4th, the weather conditions were excellent, and there were some good examples of quality winter fishing presented.

There were 9 boats and 20 members + Visitors competing for the prizes on offer. The day ended at 3pm with cold drinks at the Navy Club, Point Peron with a weigh-in and prize presentation.

Clive Marwood of Parmelia won the most species prize of $50.00 thanks to Compleat Angler and Camping World Rockingham.

Manul Paraskevas of Wellard won $50.00 for the biggest Shark courtesy of Rockingham Electric and Marine.

Darren Cooper of Seville Grove won $50.00 for the biggest Breaksea Cod courtesy of B.C.F. Rockingham.

Sue Ashton of Safety Bay won $50.00 for the biggest Harlequin fish courtesy of Safety Bay Tackle

Jamie Martin of Waikiki won $50.00 for the biggest Red Snapper courtesy of Compleat Angler and Camping World Rockingham.

Scott Heap of Port Kennedy won $50.00 for the biggest Sand Whiting courtesy of Safety Bay Tackle

Brendan Ashton (Junior Member) Won $50.00 for an outstanding Tuna Fish of 6.580kg courtesy of Safety Bay Tackle and making him a contender for the biggest fish trophy at the end of the year.

Sheridan Ashton of safety Bay won the junior prize making it almost a clean sweep by the Ashton family. Only Rick Ashton (father, Husband and Boat Skipper) not presenting a prize winning fish. That's how it goes some days.

The Visitors prize was won by Chris O'Connor of Scarborough, courtesy of Rockingham Offshore Fishing Club. Some fish that didn't win a prize but certainly rate a mention are a 6 kilo Dhu fish and a 3 kilo Baldchin Grouper from Dick Simper and a 4 kilo Pink Snapper from Clive Marwood. Good Skippy and herring were also part of the bags.

Report and photos by Nigel Kitchen

Sue Ashton of Safety Bay and her prize winning Harlequin.

Rick and Brendan Ashton of Safety Bay with their brace of Southern Bluefin Tuna

Clive Marwood of Parmelia with his 4Kg Pink Snapper

Dick Simper of Safety Bay with a nice Baldchin Grouper and Dhufish.